

Garden Co-Creatively
with the Joyful Devas & Nature Spirits

A workshop with Ellen Vande Visse, author of Ask Mother Nature, A Conscious Gardeners Guide

Monday, May 20, 7-9pm, and Tuesday May 21, 9am-5pm
Kenny Lake Community Hall, Mile 7 Edgerton Highway

$75 per Person, limited spaces, please sign up by Wednesday, May 15

Wise & humorous Nature Intelligences invite you to partner with them. Learn how to ask:

- Which fertilizers will be best for my soil?
- How do I best manage my pest populations?
- How do I de-toxify the contaminants on the land?
- How do I create a Nature Spirit sanctuary?

Ellen Vande Visse has been gardening in the MatSu for many years, including as an organic market gardener and for the Alaska NOLS base in Palmer. Since 1987 she has been teaching courses on sustainable and non-toxic growing methods through UAA, Mat-Su College, and Alaska Pacific University as well as her own Good Earth Garden School. She is the author of Ask Mother Nature, A Conscious Gardeners Guide.
